AFFIDAVIT IN SUPPORT OF ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

Rosemary Ida Mergenthaler, having been duly sworn hereby states as follows:

I am the Appellant in the above titled proceeding and make this affidavit in support of the Motion to Stay the Ordered Motion for Relief From the Automatic Stay. I have notified Macco & Stern, 2950 Expressway Dr. S # 109, Islandia, NY 11749, David Lee Miller, 3334 Noyac Road Sag Harbor, NY 11963 of this filing by mailing at the U.S. Post Office They are the attorneys for the Appellee's agent, Simon Harrison for Robert Smithson and Lucile Smithson. I have Submitted this Order to Show Cause by U.S. Post to United States District Court,

Eastern District of New York, Long Island Courthouse, 100 Federal Plaza, Central Islip, NY 11722 via priority mail on February 18, 2001. The reason for mailing this document is because of a severe medical problem that needs immediate attention. I thank you for the courtesy of accepting this document.

0. Appellee filed his motion to list the stay on 12/6/2106 (docket 246). This called For a hearing on 01/11/2017. Papers in opposition were to be filed and received by 4:30 on 01-04-2017. (Docket 246).

1. The Affidavit of Service attested to by Carol Smith plainly shows that the mailing Date of an oversize envelope was send by the U.S. Postal Service as regular first Class mail. On 01/01/2017. (Exhibit 1) in an oversize envelopes usually requires additional time to reach the recipient, as I was told this at the Sag Harbor Post Office.

2. On the morning of 01/06/17 I checked my mail box early, as it was snowing. I checked it again on 01/07/2017 and again there was nothing from the Law Firm of Macco & Stern.

3. On the following day we had a major snow storm. On Monday the 9th of January my driveway was plowed. I then could see there was no mail delivery I learned the Post Office suspended deliveries that day

4. On Tuesday the 10th of January I had a mail delivery. There was a manilla envelope from Macco & Stern was there. (Exhibit 2) This was the first time I heard anything about their Motion in the Bankruptcy Court.
5. I am a nervous driver, the round trip to Central Islip is about 120 miles. The local roads were still very bad. I decided the prudent approach was to overnighted a letter to Judge Grossman, in a timely way, explaining the situation. (Exhibit 3), Docket (250)
6. The hearing was held on the 11th of January and Judge Grossman granted the The Order Lifting the Stay. He entered it on 01/13/2017 marked as “unopposed”.(Docket 251).
7. Between the hearing date and the date Judge Grossman prepared, signed and entered the order, there was the opportunity to read, review the timely docketed letter. There were copies of the received mailing and affidavit from the serving person that showed there was, in violation of the Docket posting, improper notice given and because of the inclement weather I feel that a postponement or rescheduling of the hearing was in order.
8. The Appellee's Motion for Relief (Docket 246) contains obvious omission, misstatements of fact and a complete lack of material documentation to substantiate any findings. The case should be open for review. Justice Rana commented on several occasions that “she was uncomfortable with this resolution”.

9. The main thrust of this appeal was to keep the stay in place for the above reasons Then file a motion with the Supreme Court of the State of New York, Appellate Term 2nd Judicial District. to seek resolution of the questions pertaining to the Sag Harbor Village Justice Court matters.

10. My legal advisers were out of town and without their input, I mistakenly filed an Order to Show Cause in the above New York Court. It was rejected. I was told there were conflicting issues between the State and Federal Court issues that had to be resolved before a 2nd Department review could go forward.

11. I was advised by a pro se adviser to go to the District Court with this Order to Show Cause. and have the District Court rule solely on the Appellee's motion to lift the "Stay". This would then allow a re-filing with the 2nd Department solely on the State Court matters.

12. I feel that because of the above undisputed facts I was precluded from making a fair and honest presentation in opposition to the Appellee's motion.

WHEREFORE, I request that the Court grant the following relief:

1. To rescind the “Lifting of the Stay Order” of Judge Grossman.
2. To refer this matter back to the New York State Courts for further consideration if possible to review and clarification of major issues.
3. And, any other issues that a review of the Appeal records may show to be appropriate.

U.S. BANKRUPTCY COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF
NEW YORK

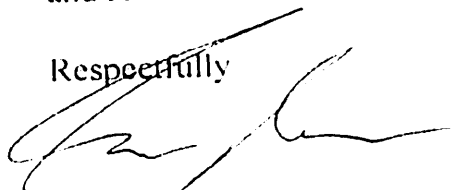

Dear Judge Grossman:

On Monday January 9, 2017 I was finally able to receive mail. I last checked my mail box on the morning of Friday January 6th. On Saturday the 7th it was also snowing and the mail box is in a difficult place to empty in bad weather. It is behind a fence and large shielding evergreens. There is no need to explain the reason I was not able to check my mail box on Sunday, the snow storm day. I was able to get my car out of the driveway on Monday the 9th. I could see that the postman had not been there. If he was there would be deep ruts in the snow. I came back at approximately 1pm and there were still no tire ruts in front of the mail box.

This morning I went out early and saw that the postman had come. I opened the box and found the envelopes from Macco and Stern (attached). There was also one for my husband. I emailed his copy to him. This is the first document we have seen pertaining to this matter. I noticed that the answer date to this document was January 4, 2017 and the hearing date was for January 11th, tomorrow. I think, your honor, that this time line is not fair or reasonable.

I respectfully ask the Court to notify Macco and Stern and have them reissue these notices in an appropriate manner with a reasonable and fair answer and return date.

Respectfully

Rosemary Mergenthaler
